A unique part of Bowers & Ruddy history**

J24.	BOWERS & RUDDY -1982-this lot consists of two silk banners that were hung behind the auctioneer's podium at the first Eliasberg gold coin sale on October 27, 1982. The banners measure 42" x 46" and 112" x 26" respectively. They are a rich golden color with purple lettering and devices. The material is a rayon satin silk and is backed with a like fabric. Both banners are decoratively fringed in the same material. The prices realized list for that sale has pictures of the auction scene with auctioneer Bill Hawfield and Q. David Bowers seated on the dais and the banners in the back- ground. The condition is excellent for both banners.	M	100.00
